Commissioner for Patents

The Applicant is advised that the Office of Publications requires the submission of new formal drawings for the application before the patent can be issued and published. The existing drawings contain a copy line through the middle of the drawings which renders them unsuitable for publishing.

The shortened statutory period for reply to this Office action is two (2) months.

There Applicant is advised that there are no extensions of time permitted to this shortened statutory period.
See MPEP § 608.02(z)[R-2].

Questions regarding this communication can be addressed to the examiner of record, who can be contacted at (571) 272-4119.
